

First things first, try to remember what the book/s looked like:

If you're not sure, ask the librarian, maybe s/he can remember. Also, keep in mind, all library books

In the bathroom
On the back porch
In the dog house
In the tree house
In the backyard
By the pool
In the basement
In the guest house
In the play house
Packed with the holiday decorations.
Under the TV
On top of the VCR/DVD player or
On top of the stereo
In the magazine rack
On the coffee table
Under the rug
At the lake house
On the boat
Ask your parents if they've seen it
Ask your brother/ sister if they've seen it
Ask other relatives if they've seen it

Around Town

At the doctor's or dentist's office
At the local public library
At the church/temple/mosque library
At the babysitter's house
At a relative's house
At your daycare/after-school care facility
At your friend's house
At your other parent's house
At Mom or Dad's workplace
At another relative's workplace
Wherever you went on errands recently

On the boat, airplane, train
At the restaurant
At the hotel

At School

In the vehicle of whoever you ride to school with Wherever you hangout after school
On the classroom or teacher's bookshelf
In my neighbor's or friend's desk

Way back on the top shelf of your school locker
In the cafeteria, gym, band room, etc.
At the school office
At the school office or library where your brother/sister attends school.
Ask your teachers if they've seen it
In any of the "Lost and Found" areas around school
Ask your friends if they've seen it
On the library shelf

Last but not least, think about the last time your parents told you to clean your room. Now, think about the various places you shoved piles of things, so that they would think you'd actually cleaned it. ;-) Make sure you check all of those places, too.

P.S. If you find your book in a place not listed here somewhere let us know and we'll add it.
