

In an effort to provide safe, informed care for your child at school, each year the Dallas ISD Health Services Department requires updated health information as part of student enrollment. Dallas ISD keeps all medical information about your child confidential as required by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and other applicable laws. However, health information about your child will be communicated to Dallas ISD school personnel who require the information to better serve your child.

| |
|--|
| DIABETES: ___Type 1 ___Type 2 What medications are taken for this? _____ |
|--|